At Brosquirt, we're here to answer
a gay bro's most important questions:

- How do I catch that hot bro's eye at Whole Foods?
- What's the move for flying under the radar at the gym while still being down to play?
- What are the perfect shorts for cruising the running trails around the lake?
- What do I throw on for that hookup from the apps?
- How do I say "no loads refused" without saying a word at the orgy?
- Where do I stash my poppers and lube—for quick access on the go?
- And how do I keep my hotel key secure when my shorts are around my ankles?

We've got the answers—
and the shorts to prove it, bro.

“Brosquirt shorts are built to move—
and made for mischief.”
